Dear Dana,

Happy first anniversary!!! It's kind of funny to think that four years ago we first met, first kissed, first made love and first got a glimpse of what could be. Of course we thought "Hey, that's the honeymoon phase" of the relationship but it sure appears to me (and you) that we have continued to laugh everyday, love every moment and grow so close. We are certainly sailing uncharted waters at this point and you know what? I am not even a bit afraid of what may come in the future. There is no reason to even ponder if we can face unseen challenges - We can and we will. We are so much stronger than I could have ever believed. I can truly say that everything about you is loved and cherished by me. I love your eyes and nose and face and hair and body and personality and mind. I love the whole package. You are the one who is able to "refill the sponge" in my soul. I love that so much! I love our family and I love how we've worked together to make our ~~life~~ life what it is today. I can confidently say that I was meant to be with you. No one else could even come close. I am thankful to have met you and to have caught your eye too. Thanks for taking a chance with a man in the circus business!

All in all there are really no words to describe how deeply I feel for you, for us. That's probably a good thing considering how hard it will be for you to actually read this letter.

Thank you for yet another wonderful exciting adventurous year. I look forward to many more with you as we continue on our life path hand-in-hand. I trust you with my soul along with so many other things (ie. the Beck dance, the penis song, the clock throw - which of course was thwarted by me, the apodel-monkey everyday, and of course Bush operations). I will always bear my inner being to you (whether or not you can handle that is another thing).

We have so much to be thankful for and so much to look forward to. I love the thought of sharing it all with you.

So here's to you my Love - You are the most beautiful woman to me. I have eyes for no one else. You completely outshine all others. We are great together and life will continue to be excellent if only because we make it so. Thank You for so many happy memories. On to Year #2 (married) and year #5 (together).

Love Always
Kurt
